A TRADITION OF TRIAL SUCCESSES

Craig Tobin leads the successful trial team at Chicago- and Washington-DC law firm Tobin & Muñoz, representing clients' interests in high-profile and often highly publicized matters. Recent successes include:

- $4 MILLION — on behalf of a woman who sustained soft-tissue injuries by a Chicago police officer while she was marching in the Gay Pride Parade (Featured in Jury Verdicts 2012/2013 on Page 25)
- $3.1 MILLION — in a wrongful death matter on behalf of the family of a 14-year old boy who could not swim when he drowned in a Four Points Sheraton Hotel pool
- $3 MILLION — on behalf of a family for a wrongful death case in a medical malpractice matter
- $1.75 MILLION — on behalf of a young man wrongfully arrested and beaten by two Chicago police officers
- $1.55 MILLION — on behalf of a CTMA supervisor falsely arrested, brutalized and injured by Chicago police officers after she explained she could not "fix" a parking ticket; the jury found all four officers guilty of conspiracy to violate our clients' civil rights
- Successfully represented a retired Chicago firefighter and his wife in a products liability lawsuit against a motorcycle manufacturer. The firefighter was rendered a quadriplegic when his motorcycle went out of control due to a design defect. The lawsuit settled during jury deliberations and the parties entered into a confidential settlement agreement.

For more than 25 years, we've used our nationally recognized trial skills to help individuals, small businesses and corporations recover and protect hundreds of millions of dollars.

Complex Civil Litigation • Catastrophic Injury • National/International Business Regulatory Matters • Criminal Representation
